City Saves $22,000 Interest By Paying Off Gas Bonds

PAYING OFF IN ADVANCE — Final arrangements were made and papers signed to end the bonded indebtedness on the city's gas works at a meeting of the city council this week. A saving of over $22,000 in interest was effected by retirement of the bonds 10 years ahead of schedule.

The city council has approved the plan to pay off the gas bonds in advance. This will save the city a significant amount of money in interest.

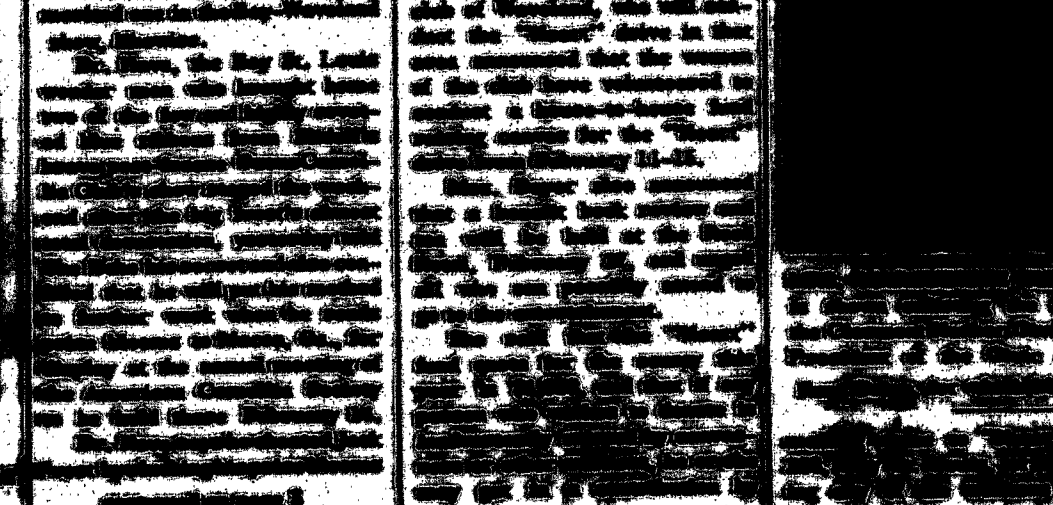

Bishop Sees Hope For World Peace

The main hope for peace and understanding among nations lies in the power of prayer, and more and more people of the world are realizing this and turning to God in this great hour of crisis.

Bishop Smith, who is a prominent religious leader, has expressed his hope for world peace. He believes that prayer is the key to understanding and peace.

Trophy Taken By Dr. Hava

Dr. Walter C. Hava, Bay St. Louis, La., has won a trophy for his work in the field of medicine. The trophy is being presented to him by the city of San Francisco.

A black and white photograph showing a group of people, primarily women, standing behind a table. The table is covered with a white cloth and is laden with various items, including what looks like a large cake or pie, several small bowls or cups, and other food-related objects. The people are dressed in dark clothing, and the background is dark and out of focus. The overall scene suggests a social gathering or a meal preparation.

Planned here today are winners in the flower arrangement division of the May-September Garden Club's competition, in which Mrs. David H. Smith, Jr., picked off four out of five first prizes to take the trophies, award and ribbon money.

Pictures of the winning arrangements in the contest will be sent to the American Ornithologists Society to be judged with pictures from all over the United States following the last annual show on the East Coast in April.

Contest-winning arrangements were Mrs. Russell's high and graceful arrangement of pink peonies and carnations. The arrangement shown this page as held by the creator, Miss Margaret O'Connell, took first place in the junior division.

Complete list of arrangements winners includes Class 1—Mrs. Dan Russell, blue; Mrs. R. J. Christman, red; Mrs. Harold Heston, yellow. Class 2—Lila

met the temperature must remain absolutely constant around 40 degrees, or thereabouts, for best "preserving" results with the garden bonnies.

also, Dr. Heber explained during his visit how Senator Bacon's trick for estimating the life and beauty of cornelia (and which) belongs to read them, straight, in collation before starting in the refrigerator. Above are only two of the highlights of very detailed and well-worked investigating methods for saving pine flowers, and "Doc" Heber in the monogamous men imaginable about important names, dates and legends of numerous articles on the subject - he even offered to lend to his readers on the subject in his modest withdrawal from from any possible credit that he was afraid we might mistakenly give him for the Social refrigerator idea.

Dr. Howe won his two blue ribbons for prize specimens of Joseph Ellinger and Raley Son. The red ribbons he claimed were for C. M. Wilson and Bonnie Bollinger.

Q — May I get a GI business loan to buy an automobile? I need it to get to and from my place of business.

A — A GI business loan for this purpose would be prohibited by law. Veterans may obtain GI loans for automobiles only if they are essential to carrying on their business.

A — You may reinstate your GI policy by paying two months' premiums and for the 120 days grace period during which you ly possible, one for the 30-day grace period ending when you were covered and the other for the current month. If you renege within three months of the date of lapse, you need merely submit a statement that you are in as good faith as you were when the policy lapsed. Otherwise, you will be required to take additional underwriting. Also, the policy must be reinsured before it

Q -- I want to train under the Harnischfeger Bell, but I am not sure what course I would like to take. How do I go about applying for a course?

A — On the application form for Section 81 training, you will find a section that asks whether you want vocational counseling. Simply check that section. VA then will schedule your vocational counseling.

Q — I had known of this situation, but I got a young dividend, the same as my brother who is a World War II veteran and has a World War II Medal?

A — Oh, either the Eng. your House. All come insurance is compensating. It don't pay dividends. However, premiums on this type of insurance generally are lower than World War II insurance.

Mr. J. C. Glover,
 City Commissioner and City Clerk,
 P. O. Box 130,
 St. Louis, Mo.

Dear Mr. Glover:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 12th in which you advise that your City has on hand sufficient funds to redeem all of the presently outstanding Gas System Bonds upon terms indicated therein.

We are in hearty accord with your action and believe you are certainly serving the best interests of the City in the early retirement of these bonds.

As you perhaps know, this was the first gas system financed in Mississippi by means of revenue bonds and while in the early stages of operation there were a few anxious moments on the part of all concerned, it is now gratifying to know that it is a sound operating utility and a great asset to your City.

Best personal regards.

Yours very truly,

W. A. McNEELY

The above letter shows how great was the concern in the early days, before such transactions became commonplace, as to whether revenue on the gas collections would be sufficient to meet the bonded indebtedness.

DELICIOUS MALTS AND SHAKES

growing along together

With over 3000 manufacturing plants opening today compared to less than 1000 in 1945, Mississippi has outstepped the South and the Nation with its rate of increase in dollar value of manufactured goods.

Accompanying these ten years of industrial progress, Mississippi has built new homes by the thousands... continuing to create such a demand for new telephones that the number of Southern Bell telephones in the State has almost doubled in 1945 to more than 221,000 today.

Still expanding rapidly, Southern Bell required an additional $127 million of construction in Mississippi alone in 1945... and to keep pace with our Southern Bell growth and progress, we expect to add another $127 million worth of construction this year to expand and improve our Mississippi network.
